

State of North Carolina No. 2100

To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting:

KNOW YE, That We, for and in consideration of the sum of Five Dollars for every hundred acres hereby granted, paid into our treasury by Lewis Spears have given and granted, and by these presents do give and grant unto the said Lewis Spears a tract of land containing Ninety three acres, lying and being in the county of Craven on the North side of New river and South side of Big Swift creek, beginning at a stake in the centre of three pine stumps the corner of a grant to Jonathan Simp and runs with a line of the same North fourteen degrees East two hundred and eighty six feet to the run of said creek then down the same seventy two feet opposite the third corner of a grant to James Anderson for 200 acres then South ten degrees West ten feet to the third corner of the same and then the reverse of the line of the same South ten degrees West one hundred and ninety feet to the second corner of the same then South eighty five degrees West seventy five feet to the beginning

Entered 26th day of October 1848

as by the plat hereunto annexed doth appear, together with all woods, waters, mines, minerals, heriditaments, and appurtenances to the said land belonging or appertaining: TO HOLD to the said Lewis Spears his heirs and assigns forever: Yielding and paying to us such sums of money, yearly, or otherwise, as our General Assembly from time to time may direct. PROVIDED ALWAYS, That the said grantee shall cause this grant to be registered in the Register's Office of our said County of Craven within twelve months from the date hereof, otherwise the same shall be void.

In Testimony whereof, We have caused these our letters to be made patent, and our Great Seal to be hereunto affixed. Witness, Charles Manly Esquire, our Governor, Captain-General and Commander in Chief, at RALEIGH, the 13th day of March in the 7th year of our Independence, and in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty

By Command,

Wm. Hill Secretary of State

Ch. Manly
